BACKGROUND

Roger has been a financial advisor since 1982, following a 15-year career in education. He was a teacher and coach at Richfield High School in Richfield, Minnesota. In 2002, he became one of the original partners at Northland Securities. He specializes in tax-advantaged investments with a focus on higher-yielding tax-free municipal bonds. Because of his own real estate experiences, he can help his clients navigate through 1031 real estate exchanges, avoiding capital gain taxes when appreciated real estate is sold. Roger enjoys working with clients to help them achieve their financial goals and is proud of the fact that he has served some families for three generations.

He and his wife Sharon have been married for 45 years. They have three sons and three grandchildren. In his free time, he enjoys hunting, fishing, and spending as much time as he can at his cabin on Sullivan Lake in northern Minnesota.

EDUCATION

After graduating from the University of Minnesota with a Bachelor's degree in 1966, he went on to earn his Masters of Education degree from Penn State University.

PROFESSIONAL LICENSES/DESIGNATIONS

Roger holds and maintains the FINRA Series 7 General Securities Representative and the Series 63 Uniform Securities Agent State Law registrations.
