BACKGROUND

Kurtis Fechtmeyer joined Northland Capital Markets in 2015 as Managing Director in Investment Banking focused on origination and execution in Communications and Technology M&A. Prior to Northland, Mr. Fechtmeyer has been an investment banker and mergers and acquisitions attorney in the technology, media, and telecom industries for two decades. In addition to closing over 50 transactions, Mr. Fechtmeyer was the co-owner and senior professional at two successful venture-backed investment banks acquired by public companies. Goldman Sachs (NYSE:GS) acquired Epoch Partners, where Mr. Fechtmeyer was an equity owner and served as the head of the communications technology group. East Peak Advisors, where Mr. Fechtmeyer served as a managing director and co-managing partner, was acquired by FBR Capital Markets (NNM: FBRC), where Mr. Fechtmeyer remained as a managing director and advisor in the technology group. Prior to joining Northland Capital Markets, Mr. Fechtmeyer also served in a corporate development capacity for J2 Global (NNM: JCOM), a public holding company for enterprise cloud services and digital media properties, and has represented asset managers with leading growth and technology investors.
