BACKGROUND

Greg Baufield is a Senior Vice President in the Public Finance Department, and focuses on the Minnesota E-12 Public Education sector. Greg spent eleven years on the Wayzata School Board and served in a variety of roles on the Board, including Director, Treasurer, Vice Chair and Chair, as well as various committee assignments, including the Financial Advisory Committee. He also served on the Board of Intermediate District 287, representing the Wayzata School Board.

Before coming to Northland, Greg spent nine years at T.I.E.S., developing new business opportunities, which included many of the operational aspects of Minnesota School Districts, such as Student Information, Finance/HR/Payroll, Test and Assessment, Data Reporting and Analytics, Athletics, Food Service, Transportation and Community Education systems.

Greg brings to the Northland Public Education Team a high level of statewide relationships, an in-depth working knowledge of and experience in School Board Governance, Process, and Policy, and District Finances.

EDUCATION

Greg attended Augsburg College in Minneapolis, completing majors in Finance and Economics.

PROFESSIONAL LICENSES/DESIGNATIONS

Greg holds and maintains the FINRA Series 52 Municipal Securities Representative, Series 50 Municipal Advisor Representative, and Series 63 Uniform Securities State Law registrations.
