CONFIDENTIAL INFORMATION FOR INVESTMENT PROFESSIONALS CHARTING A NEW BUSINESS PATH

Are you on the right course for professional success?

At Northland, the right direction means working in partnership for success.

"Northland's municipal bond offerings and diversified product platform help my team provide tax-efficient strategies and responsive service to clients, in turn meeting their income, growth, and wealth transfer needs."

— Dan Woog

— Elizabeth Janicek

SUPPORT DRIVES RELATIONSHIPS

Our staff consists of knowledgeable, caring, and innovative experts. We strive to provide exceptional support and listen to your needs and desires to grow your business. At Northland Wealth Management, the back office is experienced, proactive, and personable in every interaction. Call it our Midwest work ethic and sensibility, combined with Wall Street know-how.

THE PHILOSOPHY TO ACHIEVE SUCCESS

We keep it simple. We are a regional broker-dealer, with a focus on tax-exempt bonds. Northland's financial representatives have access to a vast number of investment options that an individual investor would want or need for their portfolio. In addition to equities, fixed income, annuities, and packaged products, our advisors have access to alternative investments, investment advisory platforms, insurance products, and proprietary tax-exempt bonds.

As financial professionals consider their options today - from the corporate mindset of a national firm, to the isolation of life as an independent - they will find Northland to be "just right" --- not too big, not too small. We manage the infrastructure of running the business and provide an attractive payout structure, along with a collegial atmosphere, working with a friendly, veteran sales group and administrative staff. Our payout structure is generous and straightforward; we don't "nickel and dime" our brokers with endless fees.

We've been in business since 2002 and are locally owned by employee shareholders and a few outside investors. We are not owned by an investment product company, so we are free to choose the right products for our clients' individual situations.

At the end of the day, we work together to take care of your clients. If you're interested in learning more, let's talk about how Northland could be the right fit for your practice and a partner for your future success.

To learn more about Northland's expertise, diversity, history, and experience, we invite you to call us. And view more information on our website at NorthlandSecurities.com.

We look forward to hearing from you.
