BACKGROUND

Marnie Fisher joined Northland Securities in 2015 as a Continuing Disclosure Specialist. Her thorough knowledge of the disclosure process and years of experience working directly with clients and bond attorneys on continuing disclosure reporting has provided a solid framework for her transition to the position of Issuance Specialist. As an Issuance Specialist, Marnie assists Northland clients with all stages of the issuance process. In her work with cities, counties, school districts, special districts, and development agencies, she ensures that the issuance proceeds along an expected timeline and that all bond proceeds are received in a timely manner. She also works closely with bond attorneys to review legal documents for accuracy.

In addition to her responsibilities as an Issuance Specialist, Marnie also oversees all of Northland's continuing disclosure work, serving as a resource for Northland clients navigating through the ever-changing disclosure environment.

Marnie focuses on providing strong communications between the issuer, the issuer's bond attorney, and Northland through every step of the process, providing the highest level of service to each client. The depth of her experience makes her a skilled problem solver, and her attention to detail ensures that clients receive prompt attention and a high-quality work product.
