BACKGROUND

Carrie is a Senior Issuance Specialist for Northland Securities, joining the firm in December 2024. She works with issuers across Nebraska throughout the bond process. Carrie works with cities, villages, counties, school districts and public power districts on their financings. Carrie's goal is to work with all parties involved with the financing, from the issuer to bond counsel, to ensure a smooth process for all.

She has been in the finance industry for over 30 years. Working in the brokerage business for many years, Carrie transitioned to public finance in 2017.
