BACKGROUND

Bill has more than twenty-five years of investment banking experience, including tax-exempt bonds, debt placements, derivative structuring and mergers & acquisitions. In addition, he has worked extensively with federal programs that support health care sponsors, including USDA's Community Facilities Program and HUD's Section 232 and 242 mortgage insurance products. Based out of Kansas City since 2004, Bill has had the opportunity to provide capital market financing solutions for senior housing and community hospital clients across the country.

In his spare time, Bill enjoys serving as a Board member for an Olathe, KS, non-profit life plan community, as well as traveling with his wife and two daughters.

EDUCATION

Bill is a graduate of Bowling Green State University with a B.A. degree in Economics and Political Science. In addition, he holds an M.B.A., with a focus on Corporate Finance, from The Ohio State University.
